

THE MILE HIGH CHARITY GOLF CLASSIC

AND

THE TED ROY CHARITY FOUNDATION

A SHORT HISTORY

For thirteen years, the Mile High Charity Golf Classic was a one-day Golf tournament, put on by Ted Roy and his family to help support the Mountains Community Hospital and sport activities at Rim of the World High School. Then in 1993, the Lake Arrowhead Country Club with Ted and his family, set up the Ted Roy Charity Foundation, a tax exempt non-profit foundation, to benefit charities in our local mountain community. The Mile High Charity Golf Classic became a tournament, sponsored by the Lake Arrowhead Country Club and the Foundation. After the first two tournaments, the Mile High Charity Golf Classic became the largest charity fundraiser in our mountain community and since 1993, the tournament has raised more than $928,000.00 for mountain charities.
